into our creative collaboration. I would like to ask you to not wait for me, don't feel shy about what your inner world is longing for. In a way it is the practice we are doing in the morning, but there is a real. Embrace the weather inside of yourself and share it ... had you wish.
This is - FOR ME - an important element of the creative act in a collaboration, it is a shared creative inquiry or 'just' a work together. → difference of 'just' a work together & real sharing, collaboration for you I am looking at the time now and I see that I slowly have to make myself ready to step into that ... 'car' ... and drive to Torres Vedras ☺

Let's dig in and construct that beautiful, poetic poetic rollercoaster!

Yours sincerely,
