

my darling Marianne,

I turned my manuscript into Viking and I'm in a hotel room waiting for an answer it is curious,

but I always seem to be in some public room waiting for an answer the Preaching tour is over

I don't think there has ever been a nation which has been bombarded with so much news about poetry for a week of its existence newspaper, tv, radio, movies all the power of the mass media focussed on - poetry