

Fabian Puttinger studied architecture and scenography at the Academy of Fine Arts Vienna. He worked at Atelier Peter Zumthor in Haldenstein, Switzerland and worked with Gabu Heindl Architektur in Vienna. Since 2020 he is working with Schmidt-Colinet Schmoeger Architects in Vienna, collaborating on design projects and exhibitions such as the collective housing project „Living for Future“ in Vienna. Together with Christina Jauernik, he is collaborating with Vicki Kirby and Wolfgang Tschapeller on the artistic research project „Unstable Bodies“.