work experience as an artist:

Now days	Compagnie with Balls is my main source of income, especially after Circus Elleboog stopped to exist in 2016 Just for laughs festival Montreal (CA), World puppet theatre festival Charleville Meziers (FR) Ansan festival and World Expo (South Korea) are some of the highlights in performing experience. We have an average of 80 performing days a year, we performed over the years in more than 30 countries in and outside of Europe
In 2018	Compagnie with Balls developed The Great Parade, a big parade with two balls and two puppets specially for bigger events
In 2010	Compagnie with Balls developed the act The World wanderer, a walking adventure on a top of a globe, also suitable for school projects
since 2009	Duo Marange, acrobatic duo with Angela Dirven; acts 'Round and About' and 'Golden girls' see: www.duo-marange.nl
In 2005	I worked in Burkina Faso together with the French company 'Les Grandes Personness' to make a performance with the population of the village of Borromo with huge marionettes. Compagnie with Balls over the years developed into a successful street theatre company, performing both in and outside of Europe (about 80 performing days a year)
In 2004	I founded Compagnie with Balls, with the French juggler Gilles Candela (until 2006) It started out with an acrobalance act but later we developed the act Join the Parade, a dance with two 4 m high figures, a Ballerina dancing on a ball that is almost 2 m tall and a giant marionet. Since 2007 I run this act with several puppeteers and ballerinas
2000 and still	freelance trainer for companies in the field of cooperation (Stork and Unilever); I developed a concept of building pyramids with employees who need to work together
Since 1992	various performances in (street) theatre and acrobatics, for instance: female acrobatics quartet Sterke Jurken, and duo Bruusk.
