Time: 14:00 -

Weather: Blustery, Fierce winds, Sun & sprinkles

NOTES: Last night on Vibrant Death page 120
I remarked: "Improvisations with ghosts?" re:
hauntology discussion. Today seems perfect time to try it out - (writing on wind/spirit)

① CASUAL WALK / PHOTO WALK

Location: Z6, 9, 2

Discoveries } ~~the~~ Fox skull swept perfectly & } onto a Plant Frame.
Observations } - only bird wings swept from willow

NOTES: Fierce winds all night, continuing today
Will dance with them shortly skulls remarkably undisturbed - only bird wings took flight... that and the Fox skull at the house, but look where it landed! (photo/video)

②

STILLNESS / SILENCE / MEDITATION

Zone: 6, garden

watching the tree tops

Trees, their bodies covered in mouths, a gown of green mouths shed in winter. They cluster in oaks & catch the wind like sails. The movements allow us to read the wind - its many directions, its eddys & swirls. Sounds of leaves (mouths) flickering / chattering, the creak of swaying trunks, a cause of rinosculations? Resemblance in the leaves against the sky of scintillations on water.

WRITING # 1

What am I bringing to The Space?

~~Ext. Space~~: deep sense of connection & mystery, a willingness to engage with ghosts & the past... desire to hold chaos & order in harmony

④ Checking In w/ self + space

- Am I Drawn to any particular zone or entity?
- Does the space seem to have a mood or affect?
- Changes?

- The wind + its energy, its chaos + the movement it affects Woods are wild with it
Tree tops vs. grass
