STATEMENT OF ART:

I'm a multimedia artist and designer. Using ASCII & Unicode the 8 & 16-bit code, rather than the traditional alphabet, I design in real-time on Facebook digital patterns and architectural models using the HTML text field as my canvas. This efficient method is eco-friendly and saves me tons of paper.

I aim to explore and develop design techniques that are both effective and environmentally conscious. My goal is to oversee projects from conception to completion, utilizing both traditional and digital mediums for innovative solutions.

Additionally, I aspire to collaborate with fellow creative artists, in a teaching and learning capacity. I draw inspiration from a diverse array of sources, including my teachers and digital artists. My creative pursuits are influenced by a wide range of disciplines, such as art, language, philosophy, and technology.
