

18¹⁵-18⁴⁵ Call with mom. She's still low after our call during lunch (she called). She remembers Dad's last concert 4 years ago and his death a few weeks later. She mourns.

19-20 Dinner. F comes home, excited and happy after a long day with her friends.

20-20⁴⁵ Try making some calls to friends and family but no answer. Chase my elective courses for 8Kt after asking a little around about a teacher. It's only a few hours before deadline.

20⁴⁵-21⁴⁰ Reading Anne of Green Gables aloud for F & S. We enjoy our time together on the sofa and hope Anne will finally understand she really loves Gilbert.

21⁴⁰-22 Sign up F for swimming at pool without adult supervision. Say goodbye to both children, cuddle, chat mostly. F is worried about her grades and reflects on how they can be seen as being the entire person.

22-22⁴⁰ Writing in chronicle-book. Listening to psychoanalysis lecture on toddler development. Don't really catch everything.

22⁴⁰-23⁵ Folding laundry. Lots of it. Listen to 2 more psychoanalytical lectures on ^{child} development. I think about my yoga teacher training.
