Norwegian Artistic Research School – progress plan

[name] will participate in the Norwegian Artistic Research School from 2024-2025.

This plan gives an overview of when the PhD student will attend the activities in the research school. The student must attend all activities to fulfil the learning outcome of the research school.

The plan must be approved and sent by the PhD institution to the Norwegian Artistic Research School, pku@hkdir.no. Any revision of the plan must be approved by the institution and submitted to the research school no later than three months before the next planned activity.

Changes later than three months before an event should only be made in case of unexpected occurrences, such as illness. The PhD institution must inform the research school and submit an updated plan as soon as possible.
