BEING & FEELING (ALONE, TOGETHER)

MARCH 26-MAY 2, 2020

OPENING EVENT: Feeling All Your Feelings

Thursday, March 26, 5:30-8 pm

Artists in Being & Feeling (Alone, Together) explore embodiment, emotion, and being: how we make our way through the world, full of feeling, as solitary individuals and together with others. This is not an exhibition on emotions, but rather an experimental platform to contemplate the human condition via themes of longing, memory, regret, hope, ambivalence, and delight. How does it feel to encounter representations both familiar and strange? How do we bring empathic curiosity to our interactions with self and others? We invite you to become actively involved: to move with us (and be moved) and to participate in ongoing conversations around the themes of the exhibition. The work in Being & Feeling includes portrait sculpture, animation, painting, sound art, video, performance, and photography. The performances, events, and interventions give space for necessary solitude and the opportunity for joyful interconnection.

Participating artists include: Sachiko Akiyama, Andrew Fish, Lauren Gillette, Katya Grokhovsky, Nico Gallo, Stephanie Misa, Tobias Rud, Cheryle St. Onge, Riikka Talvitie, and Jon Sakata + Democracy of Sound (exeter)/DOS(e) [Elizabeth Kostina '20, Gigi Gee '21, Daisy Newbury '23, Sophie Turer '21, Chloe Minicucci '21].
