

Dear KABK student, staff or teacher,

The University of the Arts (KABK & KC) is an institutional member and founder of the international Research Catalogue. The Research Catalogue is an open source, online, collaborative workspace for the archiving, designing and publishing research in the fields of (performing) art, design and music. With the aim of displaying and documenting practice in a manner that respects artistic modes of presentation, the RC allows the weaving together of text, image, files, audio and video material.

The RC is already being used extensively by teachers and students of the Royal Conservatoire (KC) and the Academy of the Creative and Performing Arts (ACPA) of the University of Leiden.

POSSIBILITIES

- Create Online exhibitions (graphical, text based and html) and share it with your peers
- Publish media (PDF, video, audio)
- Use the RC as a media repository

ADVANTAGES

- Free account
- Unique online workspace for creating online exhibitions/publications
- Possibilities to publish your exhibitions privately or publicly.
- Unlimited upload of data
- Possibilities to collaborate with others is excellent
- Connect to other art/design researchers and their networks around the world
- Safe environment regarding privacy and copyright concerns

EXAMPLES

please note: use the navigation and contents bar in the left upper corner (see image above)

- Student exhibition: As Real as you want, KABK lectorate Art, Theory & Practice
- Publication: Future Fossils Report, KABK Lectorate Design:
- Student exhibition, Practicum Artium, ACPA/KABK
- Platform: ARC sessions, ACPA Leiden University
- Exhibition: Unfolding Waves exhibition, KC (PhD)

INTERESTED IN AN ACCOUNT?

Please send a message to Emily Huurdeman at e.huurdeman@kabk.nl (KABK Lectorate Art, Theory & Practice); she can create a free account for you and give short introductions to the platform.

More information about the Research Catalogue: <https://www.researchcatalogue.net/portal/about>