ANA RUTTER AND KIRSTEN ADKINS

||Element|| is an active research space inviting the viewer to look again at both the ordinary and the unexpected. Kirsten and Ana have gathered materials from diverse locations and situations; news footage, rehearsal spaces, gardens, buildings and digital spaces.

Through distilling, extracting, reformulating and repositioning sound, film, photographs, objects and text we will make new connections exploring; the suggested, what is missing, the contradictory, the bits outside of the frame: the uncomfortable details which have been forgotten or the serendipitous moments which were mislaid.
