

||ELEMENT|| ANA RUTTER AND KIRSTEN ADKINS

Between Wednesday 17th and Saturday 19th May we have been working in the space with gathered and extracted materials, from diverse sources and location. Kirsten is restaging, already staged events that are yet to happen. Ana is exploring the ways that sound gives location while also seeping and slipping into the sounds of this place. An investigation of what occurs as we group elements individually and what happens when those elements converge in a space.

Over the next 3 weeks we will continue to work in the space, repositioning, reformulating and distilling the elements to make new connections. We will open the space again at Digbeth First Friday on the 7th June.
