
A photograph of a snowy forest at night. Three people are walking away from the camera on a snow-covered path. They are wearing dark clothing and have bright headlamps on their heads, which illuminate the snow and the surrounding trees. The trees are dark and silhouetted against the night sky. The overall atmosphere is dark and mysterious.

Sites and Situations tour is an experimental Art Event which took place in Rovaniemi 14.1.2019 at 4 - 6pm as a part of Floating Peripheries Conference 2019 – Sites and situations. The event presented artworks that are in direct and sentient relation with the situation surrounded - the height of the Arctic Circle in the darkest time of the year.

Participating artists: Kristen Kreider + James O'Leary, Dorita Hannah Liisa Ikonen , Maiju Loukola , Adrian McGrath , Naya Soulein Panagiota , Mirka Sulander, Oscar Dempsey , Aila Price , Ulla Nagy , Pilvi Keto-Leblanc
Organized by Pia and Laura Euro

A detailed ice sculpture of a reindeer, standing on a rectangular base of ice. The reindeer is facing right, with its head slightly turned. It has a textured, crystalline appearance. The background is a blurred, snowy landscape with other people visible in the distance. The overall scene is brightly lit, suggesting a sunny day.

A person wearing a dark hooded jacket is seen from behind, holding a large, blank sheet of paper. They are standing in a snowy forest with many thin trees. Other people are visible in the background, some wearing winter gear like hats and scarves. The scene is dimly lit, suggesting it might be late afternoon or early morning.
