14. The Hobby Horse

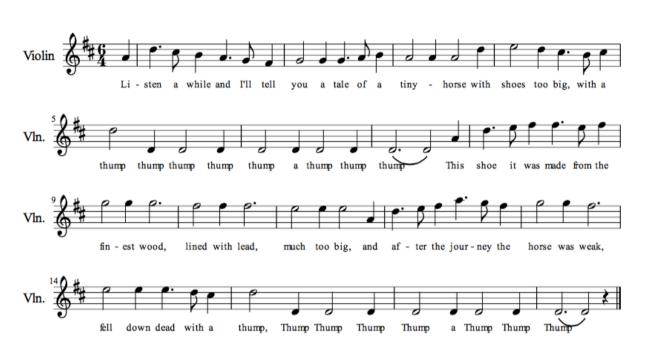

Lyrics

Listen a while and I'll tell you a tale of a tiny horse with shoes to big,
With a thump, thump, thump, thump, thump, a thump, thump, thump. This shoe it was made from the finest wood, lined with lead, much too big,
And after the journey the horse was weak, fell down dead
With a thump, thump, thump, thump, a thump, thump.

Manuscript

Score

Activity description	 Without violin Sing and learn the song whilst step the upbeat and first beat. The steps should show a light upbeat and a heavy down beat Pizz the thumb and tap the song with the 3rd finger
Suggested age/year group	6+ Sing and playing 2nd year
Musical goals (short and long term)	 Placing the first beat of the bar Direction of upbeat to down beat
Song information	'The Hobby Horse Dance', John Playford, Apollo's Banquet, 1670, No. 27

Form	ABCB
Rhythmic features (typical patterns, upbeats)	Includes upbeat

Tonality/tonic	D major
Pitch range	M13
Alterations to the	Lyrics were altered to be more children friendly.
score	