

CLEW:

A RICH AND REWARDING DISORIENTATION

Beading Workshop with Deb Fairchild

Lamont Gallery

Wednesday, March 8, 2017, 5-6:30 pm

Join Deb Fairchild to learn how to create a bracelet that is inspired by Deborah Barlow's paintings in our current exhibition: Clew.

Use semi-precious stones, including "druzes," which have features similar to geodes and mimic the textures and surfaces found in many of Barlow's paintings.

Workshop is free but space is extremely limited.

Please RSVP no later than February 22 to gALLERY@EXETER.EDU

PLEASE NOTE: This workshop is only open to adults (21+) as we will provide wine & appetizers.

About the Artist:

Deb Fairchild is a juried member of the League of New Hampshire Craftsmen and a member of Exeter Fine Crafts. She was a participant in our fall exhibition Rock, Paper, Scissors: 50 Years of Exeter Fine Crafts. Deb has worked with many off-loom bead weaving techniques, and every piece she creates is a one-of-a-kind study in color, rhythm, movement and form.
