

I'm only human,
but I will one day

tear up the mountains from the earth and let them rattle at the ears of those who sleep -

I'm only human,

take the sun down from the sky and shine in all dark corners with white relentless light -

I'm only human,

steal the lightning of the gods and sweep the earth clean of dust.
