

Appendix: Smells Like Dean Spirit, Blurb for Pitch'd

Photo by Patricia Klich

Eddie Dean, Telepathy Rock Star: Smells Like Dean Spirit

His incredible telepathic demonstrations have made him a rising star. You've seen him melting William Shatner's mind on the Discovery Channel's Weird or What? And he's the subject of the upcoming documentary, Project Viola Ten. Meet Edward James Dean – the world's only Doctor of Telepathy.*

As the mastermind behind Project Viola Ten, he's passed every test scientists have thrown at him. His research has gotten the attention of the academic and the entertainment worlds, as well as a handful of governments. In spite of all this, or perhaps because of it, Eddie Dean prefers to call himself a motivational speaker, a fitness guru, a communications consultant, or just a Rock Star.**

LIVE at the Circus Factory, Eddie Dean will do what Eddie Dean does best: Reminisce about destroying a laboratory during Project Viola Ten. Recount stories about famous people. Promote his pulp telepathy novel, It's the Thought that Kills. And give the most convincing – and dangerous! – demonstrations of telepathy ever brought to the Circus Factory. Or to any other factory. Or circus. Or anywhere. Ever.

Is he telepathic? Or just a damn good cheat? You be the judge.***

* Not officially a Doctor yet.

** This show is rated "R" for Rock Star.

*** This show is 100% family friendly.