

Form for Music Educators

Hello all! As part of my research for my Masters, I am trying to discover what the best tools, resources, exercises and formats are for creating fun and interactive hands-on music workshops for students, young and old. Please tell me what you like to include or what you have found doesn't work in your jobs as educators.

1. What is your age?

2. How long have you been teaching?

3. What areas do you teach (classroom, instrumental, other)? You may select more than one answer.

Check all that apply.

- ☐ Instrumental (IMSS)
- ☐ Instrumental (Private School)
- ☐ Instrumental (Home studio, Private classes)
- ☐ Classroom (Yr K - 3)
- ☐ Classroom (Yr 4 - 6)
- ☐ Classroom (Yr 7 - 9)
- ☐ Classroom (Yr 10 - 12)
- ☐ Other

4. What qualifications do you currently hold?

5. Have you ever run a music/creative workshop for young kids? If yes, what was the topic?

6. What types of goals do you have for these workshops?

7. What type of resources do you tend to use for these sessions (quizzes, presentations, exercises, games)?

8. How long would one of the sessions run for?

Mark only one oval.

- ☐ 30 minutes
- ☐ 30 -45 minutes
- ☐ 1 hour
- ☐ 1.5 hours
- ☐ 2 hours
- ☐ 2 + hours

9. Have you done any of the following courses? You may select more than one answer.

Check all that apply.

- ☐ Dalcroze
- ☐ Kodály
- ☐ Orff
- ☐ Other

10. If you selected Other, what course was it?

11. If you have completed a course(s), do you incorporate any of these aspects into workshops you develop?

12. Do you give the students a way to provide feedback after these sessions? If yes, how (email, questionnaire, form, in-person etc.)?

13. Has a session that you have run ever not gone to plan? If yes, what strategies did you use to overcome the difficulties.

14. Do you have anything else to add?
