

CV Frank Brümmel

Frank Brümmel is an artist and educator with a background in stonemasonry. Brümmel graduated as Meisterschüler (2006) from the Academy of Fine Arts in Nuremberg, Germany and received a Master of Fine Arts (2008) from the Finnish Academy of Fine Arts in Helsinki. Currently serves as Lecturer in Sculpture at the Academy of Fine Arts, University of the Arts Helsinki, and is developing his doctoral candidacy (since 2021). Brümmel's artistic research project is centred on the question of Allegory for Pedagogy – Sculpture as an Education Tool? approached from the position of artists as teachers, the necessity of artistic communal work, and the development of fictional archaeological stone artefacts.
