Giovanni Casu was born in Sardinia in 1975. He moved to Paris in 2002 where he lived and exhibited his artworks for the next 7 years. In 2007 he participates to Nuit Blanche Paris with the 'Le Puit'. After Culturia.de residency in 2009 he relocated to Berlin where, along with producing solo and collective exhibitions, he has developed a work based on verification procedures typical of empirical methode. The Ecke Project, 2010-2012, is based on the relationship between art and neuroscience and Empirical Survey on a heritage, 2010-2014, is a project on the consistency of Sardinian cultural identity verified through contemporary art practices. Since 2013 his artistic practice develops creative processes based on the fertile relationship between aura and value.
