From A to E, From A to E, From A to E, my Averie
What is is not but means to be
The knot is tied so splendidly

What is is not, yet meant to be

So watch these words from me to thee, from A to E.

Bubble up. Don't keep stuck. Trudge along, it's just your luck.
Soar-on high. Stretch your thigh. Lick your heel. Wet the eye.
Buckle up, don't get struck, lick your eye, crumble- pie.
Flick the dot, ring the bell, tick the tock, mid-winter smell.

Hide away

Hold the tray

Lead astray

Wet the hay
Hear the neigh
Kiss the ground

Spread your wings

Bring your things

Match the words

Explain the wings

Eat your things, Comb your wings. Eat your wings, comb your things

How being with you was all to me?
