

Appendix

Music context:

I have looked for -for me- both deepening of known areas and other sounds during this project. This to deepen and open up my sound palette, searching for deepening and unknown listening experiences and also reading sheet music of Morton Feldman, Scriabin, Hans Abrahamsen, Bent Sørensen, Per Nørgård and for me more well-known Ligeti, Messiaen, Bartok, Bach, Debussy, Ravel, Faure.

It has been part of the process to attempt to clean the sound palet, and search for a broader and deeper vantage point, and aim to have many colors at hand and contrasts to my usual aesthetics. I have seeked to open up for other/new sounds and ideas from music, searched for music that could possibly also inspire and inform musical landscapes, forms, textures, methods that is relevant for the transformative reflections:

Morton Feldman Patterns in a Chromatic Field, Rothkos Chapel, Why Patterns, Piano music
Hans Abrahamsen Schnee
Bill Frisell Richter 858
Ligeti Etudes and music ricercata
Jason Moran the sound will tell you
