

Vincent van Wijk (1990) completed his Bachelor studies with Ali Groen and Alexei Ogrintchouk cum laude in 2013. Now he is studying in the second year of the Master at the Royal Conservatory of Den Haag with Karel Schoofs and Alexei Ogrintchouk. He followed numerous masterclasses with a.o. Maurice Bourgue, Stefan Schilli, Hansjorg Schellenberger, Bart Schneemann and private lessons with Frank de Bruine, Remco de Vries, Lucas Macias Navarro, Dominik Wollenweber in Berlin. Vincent often plays in professional orchestras and ensembles such as the Rotterdam Philharmonisch Orkest, Nederlands Kamer Orkest, Nederlands Philharmonisch Orkest, Brussels Philharmonic (principal oboe) and the Residentie Bach Orkest. Besides oboist, Vincent is a frequently asked orchestra manager. He organises around 8 projects a year, through the Netherlands.