

Layers of time and Fossils

I became interested in creating 'Fossils' in the form of impressions with various materials. Below is my material exploration of these processes from multiple buildings and locations.